CIRCULAR.

PHILADELPHIA, March 15, 1883.

It is with satisfaction that I will soon offer for public competition, at auction, the well-known Numismatic Collections of S. S. CROSBY, of Boston; O. H. BERG, of Baltimore, and H. P. NEWLIN, of Philadelphia.

Almost every collector of coins has his pet specialties, or some particular line in which he takes an especial interest; he will bestow more than ordinary pains to complete his favorite department, and will wait patiently for the opportunity to secure the coveted additions, the best his means will allow. This pursuit with him is part of his life; he will devote his leisure time and bend all his energies to finish the end that he has in view. After the achievement of the task that he has set before him, he feels that he has accomplished his aim, which he generally guards with a too-jealous care. Still, his success in only an incentive to new fields of labor; he begins to realize that he has not yet reached the end, and he continues on amid new researches to accomplish that which has no end. This industry is not only a harmless recreation, but it is a useful one, from which a vast fund of enlightenment is gleamed. The student of numismatics will, no doubt, cordially welcome the advent of the following sales, as they will present the opportunity that he has long sought (and which may never occur again) of acquiring specimens of especial interest, rarity and excellence of condition.

HAROLD P. NEWLIN'S COLLECTION.

The cabinet of this indefatigable collector embraces many of the finest Dimes and Half Dimes. As a whole, the collection has not its equal in this country. Many excessively rare patterns of the United States Mint will be offered; and, also, the most complete line (lacking only two or three specimens) of Confederate Notes. The entire collection, with scarcely an exception, is in the most superb condition.

To be sold at Bangs & Co.'s, Nos. 739 and 741 Broadway, New York City, the early part of April.

O. H. BERG'S COLLECTION.

This cabinet contains a genuine 1804 Dollar, and an unsurpassed line of Foreign Copper and Silver Coinage. Mr. Berg was a collector of types and not dates. As may be expected, many beautiful examples will appear. A rich treat is here in store for the advanced collector.

To be sold at Bangs & Co.'s, about the latter part of April.

S. S. CROSBY'S COLLECTION.

This cabinet, as is generally known, is principally rich in the Colonials Coins of America. Mr. Crosby was one of the very early collectors whose assiduous pursuit in quest of examples of our early coinage, resulted in gathering together one of the finest and most complete collections known of American Colonials, Coins and Medals of the Confederation, Washingtons, &c. It contains a number of unique pieces never before offered at auction. A more extended notice of this sale will be given.

To be sold at Bangs & Co.'s, shortly after the sale of the Berg Collection.

Catalogues will soon be ready and will be sent to anyone sending me their address.

Respectfully,

JOHN W. HASELTINE,

JOHN W. HASELTINE,

DEALER IN

Curiosities, Coins and Medals, Autographs, Paper Money, &c.,

No. 201 South Eleventh Street.

Philadelphia, Mar. 6th 1883,

Dear Sir:

I send you by Express for your inspection a very valuable 1792 pattern Cent at $250.00. I do not think that more than 4 or 5 of these pieces are known, Mr. Crosby I believe only mentions three, the one enclosed has been previously unknown to collectors and has been in the possession of the owner for over 20 years, the inscription on the edge of this piece is the same as the one in the Bushnell sale which sold for $290.00, the other known varieties have different inscriptions.

Would you care for a Washington  $\frac{1}{2}$  doll. in silver, with the stars grouped about the Eagles head, and not in a circle above, condition nearly very fine, price \$70.00

Yours Resp<sup>ly</sup>

My dear Mrs Bernard

Mr Davis has given your letter of Enquiry to me because I have more information on the matters in question than he has.

The curtain I recognized at once, it used to hang in a small room to the right of the front door. Many thanks for your kind permission to keep the fragment.

The Medal was I think, struck in Paris, there were two - one in gold of Mr Davis & the other in silver of Mr Brauvir's profile. There may have been many others, but these are all I saw. I have them now and believe they are valued very highly. I do not think there were more than two dies. How many Medals were struck from them cannot of course be ascertained, at least in this country.

Have you seen one? And if so will you kindly tell me where it is as I have only heard of one beside mine, & that was in the hands of a New York medallist. With Mr Davis kind regards please accept these

Yours respectfully

Varina Davis
